eMotio & eMotio+ INNOVATION FOR PRACTICES

The all-electric eMotio couch is the most efficient examination couch ever designed, with the aim of becoming the new assistant for the general practitioner and specialist. Promotal carried out the largest study ever conducted in medical furniture with 200 doctors from 6 european countries.

The final product, the result of three years development, allows the doctor to fully concentrate on the diagnosis, whilst gaining time and space. The patient benefits from increased comfort and lower stress for a more balanced exchange.
